Greeting: Good afternoon/evening. This is _____ calling on behalf of U S WEST and this is not a sales call. May I speak to Mr/Mrs. _____?
(If name is unavailable ask for "the person responsible for your phone service.")

Introduction: Hello, sir/mx'am. This is _____ calling on behalf of U S WEST® Communications and its family of companies.
(If new person on the line, reassure him/her you're not selling anything.)

How are you today/this evening?
(Respond appropriately.)

Thanks for taking my call. We're calling all of our customers to ask for their permission to continue to share information about their telephone account services within the expanding U S WEST® family of product areas. This will allow us to keep on working cooperatively with other U S WEST® product areas—like wireless, long distance and the Internet—to customize product packages to match your individual needs.

May we continue to use this information?

If "Yes": Thank you and thank you for your time. We're sure you'll appreciate the continued, quality service this will bring you.

If "No": Okay. We'd be happy to restrict your information. We just want to make sure you know that this limits our ability to tailor product packages to meet your needs.

Still "No": Thanks for your time. And have a good day/evening.

If "Yes": Thank you. We're sure you'll appreciate the continued, quality service this will bring you.

Customer Questions

Q1: Don't you already have my information?

USW: Yes, we do. We'd just like to share it within the U S WEST® family of product areas, and we need your permission to do this.

Q2: Why do you need my permission?

USW: We believe the Federal Communications Commission will soon require this. We're being proactive now, so we can continue to plan customized products and services for you.

Q3: What kind of information?

USW: It's just information we already have concerning your telephone account services, such as the type and amount of products you buy from us, and how often you use them.

Q4: Why do you want to share it?

USW: By sharing this information with other U S WEST® product areas, we can better match products and services with your needs. So, you'll get more targeted information on the offers that are really right for you.

Q5: Are you going to give my account information to other companies?

USW: Absolutely not. We respect your desire for privacy. This information will only be shared within the U S WEST® family of product areas. And as always, our customer records are kept in the strictest confidence.

Q6: Does this mean I'll get more telemarketing calls and junk mail?

USW: We understand your concern. Please be assured we won't change the way we interact with our customers as a result of this.
